Market Commentary

This 1.89 carat Royal Blue sapphire, cushion cut and heated, demonstrates features strongly suggestive of Sri Lankan origin. The loupe-clean clarity, with only minor inclusions, significantly enhances its value. The well-proportioned cut provides very good light return, ensuring brilliance and saturation. Heated sapphires remain highly desirable in both local and international markets. Demand for fine quality Royal Blue sapphires is strong, especially in Asia and luxury Western markets, keeping pricing consistently firm. The stone's size, while below 2 carats, still commands a premium due to its exceptional color and clarity.
